New church pastor to begin on Aug. 1

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

The Rev. Robert Joy -- a native of Buffalo, N.Y. -- will preach his first sermon as senior pastor of the First Congregational Church of Wayne on Aug. 1.

Joy has a bachelor of arts (summa cum laude) from Edinboro University in Pennsylvania, where he majored in psychology and minored in philosophy.

He later earned his masters in divinity degree at Princeton Theological Seminary.

His wife, Julian (Dagg) formerly of Redford, has a bachelor of arts degree from Hope College in Michigan and a masters of divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary.

Joy said "since I sensed my call to full time ministry, my professional goals have been the same: to serve a church by helping to clarify its vision of what God wants it to be, planning to implement that vision and then to make that vision a reality."

Earlier in his life Joy served as a building contractor with his earthly father. "Today I still see myself as a builder working with my heavenly Father," Joy said.

His religious views include: "I enjoy the interchange of ideas and believe God will guide us into the truth. Tolerance and respect for the opinions of others, sets the stage for the Holy Spirit to create peace and progress through fellowship."

Joy also feels "God's grace is overwhelming and unstoppable. By displaying thankfulness, we respond to such a generous and unmerited gift by passing this grace on to others."

Sunday services are conducted at 10:30 a.m. each week and the public is invited to attend.

MEAP scores up and down

By IVAN HELFMAN
MCN Staff Writer

Wayne-Westland 1999 MEAP test scores for fourth, fifth, seventh, and eighth graders lurching around, some going up, some going down, some questionable in the eyes of administrators.

"We have a lot of concern about fifth grade writing scores, which dropped 24.4%," said Sam Barresi, the district's assistant superintendent for instruction, who discussed the state's proficiency test with use. Scores indicate the percentage of a district's students who are deemed proficient in a subject.

He continued: "But we also had increases in a number of areas. In others where we dropped, the statewide average dropped more."

The 24.4% drop in fifth grade science scores appears somewhat fishy to Barresi, who would like to see how the tests were scored.

"We don't get a copy of what was written on the tests, only the raw score, so I don't know what happened," he said. "On that test, we had 568 students just at the cutoff point. I'm trying to see if it's possible to get the tests."

Barresi said that rectifying a mistake against the 568 fifth graders could rocket up the percent of proficient pupils.

The district did best on reading. In the fourth grade, 50.8% were proficient, an increase of 6.3%. Statewide 59.4% were proficient, a .8% increase. District seventh graders scored 50.6%, an increase of 10.3%. Statewide 53% were proficient, a 4.2% increase.

Math was mixed. In the fourth grade, 61.3% were proficient, a decrease of 5.4%. Statewide 71.7% were proficient, a 2.4% decrease. District seventh graders scored 60.1%, an increase of 3.9%. Statewide 63.2% were proficient, a 1.8% increase.

Science was off. In the fifth grade, 24.4% were proficient, a decrease of 1.4%. Statewide 36.9% were proficient, a 3.5% decrease. District eighth graders scored 10.2%, a decrease of 2.3%. Statewide 23% were proficient, a 1% increase.

Writing was mixed. In the fifth grade, 39.9% were proficient, a decrease of 24.4%. Statewide 54.8% were proficient, a 9.5% decrease. District eighth graders scored 60.1%, an increase of 4.1%. Statewide 63.5% were proficient, a 5.5% decrease.

Barresi said that the district uses the tests to monitor the curriculum during a five year cycle and make changes to reflect what the state feels is necessary for students to compete.

"We are now revisiting math," he said. "We are doing everything we can to help our students become successful and to be productive lifelong learners."

Bennett praises alternate programs for expelled youth

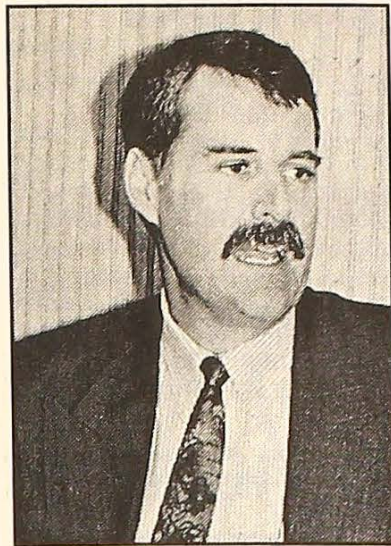

Senator Loren Bennett, chairman of the Senate Education Committee stated today that he was encouraged by the interest shown from several private nonprofit family and children service agencies in pursuing alternative education programs for youth who may be expelled under existing and proposed state law.

"As we attempt to ensure the safety of the majority of children and teaching staffs in our schools, we must also attend to the obvious needs of the expelled students," said Bennett. "I am pleased by the interest of private nonprofit human service agencies in stepping forward to meet the need."

Bennett made his statements following recent meetings with several private nonprofit agencies who invited the Senator to join them at Vista Maria, a nonprofit residential treatment campus for abused, neglected and delinquent youth located in Dearborn Heights. Joining in the meeting were representatives from several other nonprofit licensed family and children agencies with services throughout the state. All are licensed by the State Department of Consumer and Industry Services to provide treatment and educational programs to abused, neglected and delinquent youth. The meeting was coordinated through the Michigan Federation of Private Thirteen Federation member agencies already operate educational programs in campus-based settings for youth who are assigned to the agencies through the Family Independence Agency or by local courts. Bill Long, Executive Director of the Federation, noted that member agency directors and boards are concerned with the impact on the expelled youth and their communities resulting from mandatory expulsion unless counseling and alternative educational services are available.

"Staff and voluntary boards of our member agencies work with children and families experiencing a number of difficulties already," Long said. "While we are concerned with the impact of expulsion on the child, family and community, we recognize there will be in-locations throughout the state we have the resources and experienced to provide alternative education programs."

Bennett pointed out provisions in pending legislation that would permit local or intermediate school districts to work cooperatively with the private agencies to develop an alternative education program appropriate for the expelled students.

Bennett added: "We concluded from this meeting that these programs which in many cases already coordinate with a number of local and intermediate school districts can be a valuable resource for expelled students. My office will ensure that they are put in touch with the proper officials in the Office of Safe Schools within the Department of Education so school districts can be informed of these existing alternative programs. This is an excellent example of private nonprofit human service agencies and public educational programs working together."

rules that someone before them had set up prevented them from approving this site.

They totally disregarded the residents around the site. So at the next election, I will be voting for five different councilmembers. And I praise the two councilmembers that listened.

Wayne Councilwoman Shirley Powser embarrasses me

I am continually surprised about the space you give to Councilwoman Shirley Powser. I've lived in Wayne all my life, and I have total confidence in our city employees and our council. I think the most positive thing to come to this council is Bob Dickerson. He goes the distance.

I think the only reason that Shirley Powser makes issues of things at city council meetings is so that people know who she is. I don't think that she has ever had a straight thought in her life.

I have nothing against her. I think that she has a very positive role. If she could do something with it, she should, instead of continually picking apart our city at the council meetings. It's a joke.

If I didn't live in this city and lived on the outside, I would be embarrassed. And I am embarrassed that she represents me.

I think that we are a popular community with a lot to offer, and it's a shame that someone like that is continually trying to bring us down.

High kicking helpers

Line dancers Just For Kicks performed Sunday afternoon at the Marquette House, an assisted living complex. The 28-member ensemble dances for charity. Currently they are buying $2,000 a month worth of food for a four-year-old boy who is allergic to almost everything. They are also financially helping a 10-year-old boy with a malignant tumor. The group performs 4:30-5:30 p.m. Saturday at the Fifties Festival in Novi (Novi road and I-696).

Wayne County Parks Chief of Design Nancy Darga was recently honored as Public Servant of the Year by the Public Administration Foundation Inc.

The award was presented at the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) General Assembly.

Darga has been a landscape architect for 21 years and original board member of Southeast Michigan Land Conservancy. She also served as grant coordinator and secured the first piece of land purchased through the Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund.

Darga, a Michigan State University graduate and Detroit native, is the mother of two children, Alex and Anna, and the wife of Wayne County Engineer Michael Darga.

She also is a member of the Northville Parks and Recreation Commission.

Dr. David L. Diles has been named the new athletic director at Eastern Michigan University.

Diles, 38, had been vice president and director of athletics at St. Bonaventure University in New York, where he had served since 1994.

He has signed a five year contract with EMU and will begin his new duties on July 12.

Neil Swanger of Romulus has graduated from Spring Arbor College with a degree in family life education.

Graduation ceremonies were held recently at Spring Arbor Free Methodist Church.

Karai Brown

Karai Louise Brown, daughter of Chuck and Wendi Brown of Garden City, was born June 16, 1999 at Annapolis Center of Oakwood Hospital in Wayne. She weighed nine pounds and 13 ounces and measured 22 inches at birth.

She joins two siblings at home, Kiani, 10, and Kodi, 5.

Her grandparents include: Keith and Peggy Carter of Plymouth (formerly of Wayne), Dennis and Penny Weese of Westland, Michael and Debbie Capen of California and Tim Brown of Dearborn Heights.

The parents say Karai is pronounced Ka-rye meaning "Little Dove."

Dr. Joann F. Pieronek, the most recent provost of the Downriver Campus of the Wayne County Community College, has been named vice chancellor of Educational Affairs by WCCC chancellor Dr. Curtis L. Ivery.

Pieronek on July 15 took over responsibilities for more than 68 career-technical and transfer degree programs across the five campus district development of new program offerings and oversight of distance learning.

Earlier she earned her Ph.D. in instructional technology from Wayne State University. She holds a master in science degree in nursing with specialty in pediatric nursing, also from WSU.

Sharita Sealle of Inkster has been selected as an Elmhurst College resident adviser for the 1999-2000 school year.

Salie, a sophomore, is a chemistry major and a member of the Elmhurst Gospel Choir.

She is a 1998 graduate of John Glenn High School in Westland and is the daughter of Randall Parker of Inkster.

The duty of the resident adviser is to work with the Residence Life staff at the college to create a community environment within the residence halls. They must contribute to and promote the intellectual, social and cultural development of the resident students.

Former Belleville resident Dr. Susan Clark Studer has authored an inspirational book for teachers The Teacher's Book of Days: Inspirational Passages for Every Day of the Year.

Her book is designed to encourage and empower teachers. It is available through major book stores and is available through the internet bookstores (Amazon.com and others).

Studer, a 1967 graduate of Belleville High School, currently is a professor of education at the California Baptist University.

She teaches curriculum development and research classes to practicing teachers. Prior to moving to California with her husband, Paul, (also a 1967 BHS graduate) she taught in area schools. The Studers reside in Corona, CA.

Studer is sister of township trustee Donna Clark and Bob Clark.

Semipro football and summer movies — the good and the bad

Three cheers for Glenn Brothers. This retired Western Wayne man could have packed his bags and moved south or north, where he could play golf or go fishing every day. Instead he is devoting his retirement years to helping youth avoid the pitfalls of young adulthood.

Brothers owns a semipro football team in Westland. Mind you, this is not on the scale of minor league baseball. Football players, some collegiate heroes, others all-league out of high school pay $90 to earn a spot on the roster of 50 or so. Brothers sells program ads to fund his team. Games are played at the old Cherry Hill High School football field and sometimes a crowd of 100 will be there to cheer the guys on. They play similar teams in Ohio and Michigan, with their arch rival being Monroe.

No this is not the National Football League. But it does provide hope for many area football standouts. The hope for high school graduates is that a major college program will review tapes of the games and offer a scholarship. Brothers takes great care in seeing that the tapes are passed along to major college coaches and is a one man public relations army when it comes time to promote his best players.

But whether you are the team's number one star, or the 51st player on the bench, Brothers treats you like a son. That's what makes this man special. He truly believes it is his calling to take fifty-or-so youth each year, and teach them how to be good, young men. He abhors the pitfalls- drugs, guns, lack of responsibility, excessive drinking, that so many of our high school graduates fall victim to.

Brothers can tell you countless cases in which wayward players have come to his team to play. In many cases they are accepted, but Brothers, his six or seven coaches, and team leaders do all they can to convert the young men to clean living. Thanks to Brothers and his coaches, a few young adults are given a recreational outlet that teaches responsibility and morality. I wish more outlets of this type were available to our youth.

I don't like to play movie critic, but I must say this year's summer blockbusters leave a lot to be desired. Blockbuster #1, Star Wars — The Phantom Menace, was okay, but lacked a developed plot. I left the theater disappointed, because the hype and advertising had conditioned me to think this was going to be as good as the first Star Wars. It wasn't close.

Then came yaaah Baaby — that English dude named Austin Powers and his sidekick, mini-me. I've never seen an advertising campaign so thorough. Austin Powers was everywhere. Unfortunately when the movie finally hit the theaters, most moviegoers rated it terrible.

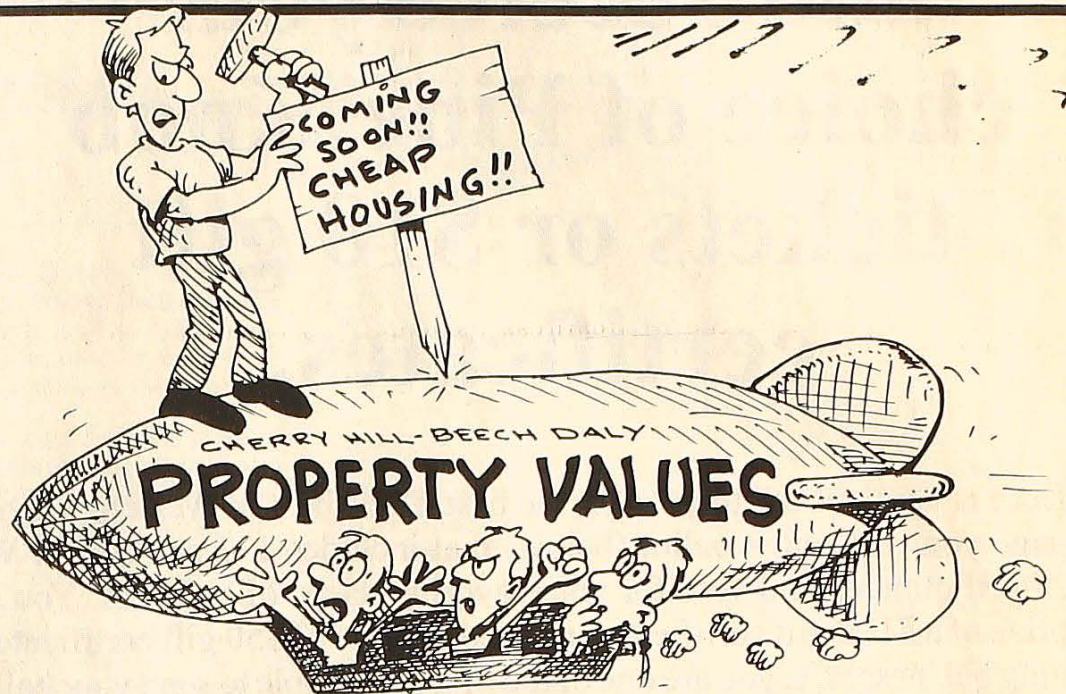

But by far the worst of the lot, is Stanley Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut. Again the pre-opening hype was extremely intense. Many of us looked forward to opening night when we could see Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman together on the big screen. The nearly three hour movie should have been titled Eyes Shut Wide, because that's what many of the moviegoers were doing — sleeping. I've never witnessed a movie crowd so bored. Even those that came for the sex were disappointed, because there was none.

I question whether Hollywood knows how to make a good movie anymore. Certainly this summer's crop leaves a lot to be desired.

Prevention could cure panhandling

On Saturdays I often run a family errand to Detroit.

I take my daughter to her orchestra rehearsal at a joint on Woodward Avenue, south of Martin Luther King Drive, and it hurts me that panhandlers prevent me from strolling down Woodward on sunny afternoons like I used to do when I was attending Cass Tech.

In those prewhite-flight days, a 14-year-old could safely stroll past dime-a-dance ballrooms and into musty stores that sold vintage National Geographics and rare Mad and Superman comic books, and even veer off onto unknown side streets without always looking behind your back.

But now panhandlers have forced me off Detroit's streets, which I love for no other reason than nostalgia for the way they were when I took the Hamilton-Grand River bus through Detroit and Highland Park's ethnic neighborhoods to high school.

Last fall, the first time I drove my daughter to Detroit, I left her at practice and walked down Woodward, admiring what was left of the old two-story buildings and Woodward's zero-setback streetscape with its wide sidewalks and stately street lamps that blend in, not draw attention to themselves like the stage props found in the tackier suburbs.

But before I could go twenty feet, the grizzled men crawled out of recessed doorways with bottles in crumpled bags and elderberry wine fumes on their breathes and descended on me, surrounding me and begging for dollars.

That was the last time I ventured down Woodward alone. Now I park in a lot with a locked gate, a high fence, and uniformed security guards with walkie-talkies.

I leave the streets to the panhandlers.

Now I read that the city of Detroit is going to run the panhandlers off the streets once the new baseball and football stadiums and the new casinos open.

According to the Detroit News,

Ivan Helfman

160 Detroit cops will patrol the casino-area aggressively shoeing the panhandlers off the streets.

"We're going to tell the panhandlers to move along," Detroit Police Cmdr. Greg Gaskin told the News. "There will be thousands of people coming downtown to gamble, and that means they'll have money in their pockets. Criminals are going to be well-aware of that. Our job is to make the area around the casinos safe, and we can't have people loitering outside the casinos asking for money."

Gamblers and sports fans don't like panhandlers.

Neither do I.

Like the typical gambler and sports fan, I dislike being shaken down for money. But unlike the Detroit casino crowd, I'm opposed to the crackdown on panhandlers.

While I would like nothing more than to rid the streets of panhandlers, I realize that they're there because during the Coleman Young reign, too many businesses fled Detroit for the suburbs. With the breakdown of too many Detroit's families and neighborhoods and all of the Detroit's schools, government, and police force, many good people are left without good job opportunities or families capable of helping them out.

In some cases, the choice may be panhandle, starve or turn to crime.

The way to eliminate panhandling is to create a healthy community with strong neighborhoods, good schools, living wage private sector jobs, and plenty of entrepreneurial opportunities.

Unfortunately, the special interest groups in power in Detroit and in Wayne County have absolutely no neighborhood focus, which is really disgraceful, considering Mayor Dennis Archer's intelligence and good intentions and given County Executive Ed McNamara's incredible record of strengthening neighborhoods and communities when he was mayor of Livonia.

With all the taxes we pay in America (taxes make up such a high percentage of American's income that the government usually only reveals the taxes as a percentage of GDP), we should be able to do better for our citizens than leave them no option other than to panhandle and then kick them off the street.

While I dislike welfare dependency as much as the next person, I think that with all the taxes we pay, we should get something back, including a safety net.

After all, as a percentage of income, French citizens pay less than we do, yet they get something back for their taxes. For example, many French workers put in 39 hours a week, get at least 10 weeks' holiday a year, free medical care, education and retraining benefits, generous unemployment insurance, and retire with a government pension at the age of 50. Women get paid time off to bear and care for children.

While we get bombs to drop on a friendly country like Serbia and get money to build new casinos and money to shuffle our sports teams from stadium to stadium, we can't find a cent to revive Detroit's once fine schools or neighborhoods or to allow people to toss a quarter to those of the city's walking dead who choose panhandling over mugging or dope dealing. Even in Westland, decent families have to beg for months to get the city interested in rat control at a time when Mayor Bob Thomas floats schemes to build a new multimillion-dollar city hall.

Perhaps if I could once again enjoy along Woodward Avenue on Saturday afternoons, my mind wouldn't dwell on such unpleasant thoughts the rest of the week.

Hard Work and Perseverance Are Plenty To Smile About

Mr. Ross: Ever since I got out of college I've had to struggle for every cent I've earned. Six years ago I joined a large corporation with the idea of rising through the ranks. I've gone from mail clerk, all the way to administrative assistant. Finally I'm up for a promotion to manager. Only one thing stands in my way—decent teeth. At 33, I'm embarrassed to say I've let my teeth go. Neglect and poor dental care during my teens have added up to decay and broken teeth. By the time I had the money to begin working on them, they were so far gone that it would cost thousands. I have pretty good dental insurance, but it only covers 50-percent of the cost of which I'm responsible for $1,250. I can manage half that and would be willing to make monthly payments for the remaining $625, but I have to pay my portion all up front due to a past delinquent bill of $275. I'm sure you have people worse off to help, but this job opportunity is going to pass me by and I may never be considered again. I've worked too long and hard to start over. Please, help me to advance myself.

Miss P. M. ... The Shopper, Tucson, AZ

Dear Miss M.: I assume you're asking me for $625, plus another $275 for a total of $900. It's yours and let me explain why. You're hard working and you're looking to improve yourself. And if that's not enough, you deserve something to smile about and the fundamental equipment to achieve that smile. Best wishes.

Dear Mr. Ross: The long summer is here with the closing of the school year. I have 4 children, ages 6, 7, 9 and 11. Inevitably we start the summer with, "I'm bored mom! What is there for us to do?" Sending them out to play only works on nice days. On stormy days they are inside and board games only go so far until a fight breaks out. This summer I want to encourage as much reading as possible. It's a way to keep their minds active and promotes quiet time for me to get the house work done. My husband is a long distance trucker and gone most evenings during the week. The library is too far to walk to, so our time there is very limited. Would it be possible to send $100, so I could purchase some age appropriate books? This way I could build a small library that one day their own children could benefit from. The thought of the TV on from dawn until dusk sends me reeling. Besides, I think it's a poor influence on developing minds.

Mrs. F. S. ... The Herald, Abbeville, AL

Dear Mrs. S.: If you can teach your children the value of reading at a young age, you'll have given them a gift for life. The $100 I'm sending will kick-off your library, but allow me to also give you your first book: Princess Patty In Peace On Earth by author-illustrator Betsy Bradford. The theme of the book is self-esteem and holds a marvelous message for children. If any of my other readers are interested in purchasing the book contact: Scope Publishing, 936 Pleasant View Court, Northfield, MN 55057 or phone (507) 663-0517. The book is timeless and sure to become a family favorite.

Dear Percy: My wife and I will be celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary in 3 months. Ever since we were married we dreamed of a honeymoon in Hawaii. With 2 kids in college, we just can't afford it. If you could cover airfare, hotel and meals, I could afford to buy my wife a diamond pendant that I would present to her on our anniversary. With all the failed marriages in the world, I really think we deserve this.

Mr. L. J. ... Thrifty Nickel, Marietta, GA

Dear Mr. J.: It's not a question of being deserving when it comes to luxuries, it's a question of whether you can afford them. So when you, yourself, can afford a honeymoon in Hawaii, I'm sure you'll deserve it as well.

Bibbins Road (between Shook and Olive) in Romulus will be closed from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Aug. 3 to allow outdoor programs for senior citizens and others as part of the annual National Night Out program.

Roberts honored

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Edward Roberts, who loves to talk with people, is being cited as the Westland Convalescent Center's July-August featured resident.

A native of Tennessee, Roberts moved to the Detroit Metro area back in the early 1950's after serving a stint in the U.S. Army back in World War II.

He and his wife, Lillian, have three children, nine grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Roberts formerly worked for the Wolverine Tube Co. for 24 years and later for Blue Cross/Blue Shield for 10 years.

He retired in 1984 and began mowing grass and shoveling snow for his neighbors, but admits he enjoys talking to people best.

Today Roberts displays a unique day-to-day good sense of humor, despite the fact he suffered a stroke in 1977 that hampers his use of his left leg and arm.

In addition, Helen Stewart, a nursing assistant, who has been named a unit coordinator at the center, has been named the featured employee of July-August.

Her nursing supervisor, Nerrilee Spry, said "Helen is the backbone of my section, especially on Station I. Her calm quiet presence helps to keep the chaos level down."

zens and others as part of the annual National Night Out program.

The Night Out program has been organized to allow police and community members to show unity against criminal elements in the community.

Scores of activities ranging from hayrides to police displays will take place and a $4.50 dinner will be served from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at the senior center.

All other activities will be free.

Safety meeting set July 30

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Romulus senior citizens and other interested residents are urged to attend a Emergency-Personal Safety session in the Romulus City Hall Council Chambers on July 30.

Senior Center Director Linda Norman said the meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. with representatives from area utility companies, local public safety groups, a bank organization and others will be on hand to offer guidance for what to do if weather crises hit or utility services stop for any reason.

Dave Baker and Brenda Thurman will be on hand from Detroit Edison, as well as Tom Raupp from Ameritech and Greg Lamkin, assistant director of the Romulus DPW.

Nicole Rakov will represent Comerica Bank, Loe Welsch will appear on behalf of the Senior Alliance and Margaret Leduc, coordinator of the Romulus Emergency Management team, will speak on local crisis preparedness efforts.

Local police will be represented by Executive Lt. Eric Painter and Community Police Officer Joe Richardson, while Fire Inspector Karen Nightingale will discuss Fire Department efforts.

In addition, Lt. Robert Dossetto, second district coordinator of the State of Michigan Emergency Management team, will also speak out that morn-

The session, that is expected to last until about noon, is free and is open to the public also.

The session will be taped and shown on local cable channels at a later date.

An orientation session for the Friendship Center's Bowling League will take place at 10 a.m. Sept. 1 at the new conference room at the Friendship Center.

Anyone can join and beginners are welcomed. Bowling sessions will begin at 11 a.m. Sept. 8.

Bowling sessions will include: 50/50 drawings, mystery game $ and an end of the season banquet.

Nursing Home Care, & your family's rights

Anderson tourney 'jinx' continues Westland ends Calvert's dreams of 'tripeat'

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

No team has ever won three consecutive Leonard J. Anderson Invitational Softball Tournament titles.

Calvert's, the defending champ, learned that fact the hard way on Sunday as Westland buried Calvert's, 19-4, on Sunday in the finals to win the 23rd annual tournament title and end Calvert's dream of an unprecedented "tripeat".

Westland, which carried into battle the banners of four sponsors - Journeyman/

Varsity/Ques/Easton - is ranked the No. 1 team in the nation. Coach Larry Quartuccio's teams have won only three titles since the inception of the tournament in 1977.

Quartuccio said that the victory, before an estimated crowd of 600 softball diehards who braved 90-degree plus heat and humidity, was very gratifying.

"This win was personally gratifying because we defeated some real good teams, such as Calvert who had won it the two previous years," Quartuccio said.

Calvert's was no match for the Journeyman in the preliminary rounds of the finals. The Westlanders stopped the two-time defending champ, 24-17, the first time they met, then, after Calvert's battle back from the losing bracket and earned the right for a rematch, the Journeyman again defeated their former nemesis, 19-4.

In the finals, Scott Hille, who had a perfect four-for-four at the plate, and Mark Matchulat, who went three for three, combined for 13 of the 19 runs batted in.

also had a perfect three-for-three at the plate and Johnny Simpson wound up with three hits in four trips.

In their opening round, Westland disposed of Nagel, 21-1, as Dave Dohanos led the assault with three hits for three at bats and three RBIs. Johnny Simpson checked in with two hits and Scott Nastally also had a pair of hits and six RBIs.

In a slugfest with Dearborn Heights' Zada, the Journeyman survived 28-17 as Hille and Bruce Wood were perfect

Champs put 4 on All-Star team

To the victory, the adage says, goes the spoils.

And that adage definitely proved true when it came to selecting the 23rd Annual Leonard J. Anderson Invitational Softball All-Star Team. The champs, Westland's Journeyman/Varsity/Ques/Easton, placed four of their top players on the tournament team.

The champs also boasted the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

The MVP of the weekend series was Mark Matchulat, who also was inducted into the Hall of Fame. Matchulat and Jeff Etterenberg were the only two Hall of Fame inductees this year.

Westland, managed by Larry Quartuccio, won its third title in the 23-year history of the tournament which is dedicated to the memory of Patrolman Anderson, the only officer to be slain in the line of duty in the city of Wayne.

Tournament manager drafted from Quartuccio's outstanding club four other players: Scott Nastally, Scott Hille, Jason Riggs and John Sampson.

From the second-place finishing Calvert's team, the managers named Bob Woldyk, Jim Harvey and Roger Breeding to the team. Metro Glass' Jason Wetmore and Mike Dest, along with Zada Enterprise's Tim Fredenberg and Jim Mullen-cup, round out the 1999 All-Star team lineup.

Broncos, Mustangs advance to state

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Both teams were forced to fight back from opening game losses, but the Westland Broncos and Mustangs managed to do so.

And, because they refused to quit after their first loss, the two teams will represent the city of Westland at the state playoffs this weekend.

The Broncos will travel to Grand Ledge in their bid for a coveted state championship, while the Mustangs return to Garden City to play for the state title in their division.

Westland hosted a Broncos Division, (11-12 year olds) with teams from Okemos, North Farmington-West Bloomfield, Garden City and Westland taking to the diamonds.

When the clouds cleared, Westland II, managed by Joe Wilson, surfaced with the district crown.

It wasn't easy for the Broncos.

In their opening game, the Westlanders wound up on the short end of a 7-1 decision against visiting Okemos. The visitors appeared to have the talent in the Westland district to go all the way.

But Westland came back and beat Okemos, 3-1, in the championship game as Brad Wilson fired a two-hitter, struck out four and walked none in his superb pitching performance.

Westland got on the scoreboard in the opening frame, but Okemos tied the game in the top of the second.

In the fifth, the Westlanders put two runs on the scoreboard that would decide the game and the title. In that pivotal inning, Tom Cichowski got aboard on an error, then proceeded to steal second and moved to third via a ball, after Brett Schwartz drew a base on balls.

Dominique Fisher's grounder to third wound up in an error that allowed the tie-breaker to come around, but Schwartz was tossed out at

Kickoff on Saturday Twisters to open against Fremont

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With high hopes and expectations, the Twisters will open the 1999 football season at Fremont, Ohio.

A semi-professional club that has in its lineup a score of former local high school football stars, the Twisters this season will be coached by Jason Hagelthorn, ex-Glenn star.

Coach Hagelthorn's coaching staff will include associate coaches Rodney Swanigan, Christian Brothers, Michael Candela, James Perkins and Jake Rathmann.

"I feel we have an exceptional team this year," said J. Glenn Brothers, president and CEO of the Wayne County Twisters. "Last year we fielded a team that was very competitive, and we have high expectations of this team.

Among former local grid-ders who will be suiting up for the Twisters are Matt Graca, a 5-8, 185-pound defensive back who prepped at Westland John Glenn; Mark Wetmore, who also hailed from Glenn, who will be used as a wingback;

Derrick Young, of Plymouth-Canton fame. He's 5-8, 160-pound kicker; Eddie Trent, 5-7, 190-pound running back out of John Glenn; Chuck Lauber, 5-9, 260-pound linebacker, who also was a member of the All-Area Team from John Glenn.

The Twisters also have signed Mike Kennedy, a 6-4, 270-pound defensive lineman, who played at Wayne Memorial; Phil Graca, 6-1, 242-pound linebacker, also from Glenn; William Davey, 6-5, 325-pounds, a defensive lineman, who prepped at Glenn; Reggie Brandon, 5-8, 155-pound wing-back from Wayne Memorial.

Bob Hagelthorn, who also starred for Chuck Gordon's teams at Westland John Glenn, will be utilized at defensive

Blue Jays upset Diamondbacks to win World Series

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The Blue Jays, representing the Eastern Division, bounced back from an opening-game setback for back-to-back victories to jolt the Diamondbacks, 7-5, and 8-4, and capture the Canton Girls Softball World Series.

The Diamondbacks, the dominating force in the Western Division of the CC-JBSA this season, were favorite to win the Series, but they had problems at the plate due to an outstanding pitching performance by Becky Houdek and the Blue Jays' superb defense.

After dropping the opener to the Diamondbacks, the World Series champ Blue Jays evened up the series thanks to Kaitlin McKinley who drilled a three-run homer that opened the gates to the 7-5 victory.

Then, on Thursday, the Blue Jays stashed the championship away as Houdek came back with another strong performance on the mound. The Blue Jays scored an 8-4 victory as well as winning the World Series.

In other games, the White Sox buried the Athletics 20-3 as Lauren Parker ac-

Wilke, Farwell settle for tie

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With apparently no "sudden death" stipulation written into the tournament rules, Nancy Wilke and Carol Farwell settled for a tie and medalist honors for the week in the Women's Suburban Golf Association's weekend tournament.

Wilke and Farwell carded identical 88s to finish shared First Flight honors.

Four golfers - Pat Myers, Diane Wazney, Sandy Rivers and JoAnn McVicar - toured the Huron Meadows Course with 91s to finish in a four-way tie for second Low Gross honors.

Lillian Vanderbroeker registered the low net. She fired a even par 72. Two strokes back were a pair of golfers, Mary Gene Stefanec and Mary Allen, who has the best second low net scores.

In the meantime, over in the second flight, Wayne's Pat Henke shot a 97 that gave her the top honors in that flight.

Three golfers checked in with 105s for Second Flight Low Gross. The golfers are Bernie Evans, Lori Wilson, and Jinny Valentine.

Dorothy Cody had the best score of the weekend. She topped the Second Flight, Low Net competitors when she returned to the clubhouse with a 71.

Two strokes back was Mary Cunningham, who had a 73 for second low net.

They had to come back from the loser's bracket to do it, but the Westland Broncos managed to do it and win the district baseball title over the weekend. The title is their ticket to the state finals which will be staged this week at Grand Ledge. The Broncos' lineup includes Steve Crews (front row, from left), Tim Bingham, Nick Mars, Greg Wacker and Jonathan McCahill; second row are manager Joe Wilson, Tom Cichowski, Brad Wilson, coach Keith Farris, Chris Boertje, Danny Walsh, Vinnie DeLuca, Chris Canesi, David Potter, Brett Schwartz, Scott Timma, coach Todd DeLuca, and Dominique Fisher.

Vinnie DeLuca bounced out pitcher to first, but the Westlanders got their insurance run when Danny Walsh sliced a single to right field.

The Mustangs got a wake-up call in the form of a 14-3 loss at the hands of the Lakes. They took their wrath out on Garden City, 20-1, in their next game, then beat the Lakes in back-to-back games, 14-3, and 12-5 to emerge as the best team at the districts.

Simpson, Jason Riggs, Scott Nastally and Janack each had three hits in the Journeyman's 24-17 victory over Calvert's. In the semifinals, Metro Glass also of Westland fell to their city rivals, 31-15, as John Sampson drilled five hits and posted five RBIs. Matchulat also was perfect in his four at-bats, accounting for five RBIs. Dohanos and Riggs each had four hits.

For their individual performances Hille (See Related Story), Riggs, Sampson, Nastally and Matchulat were named to the All-Tournament Team, while Matchulat was not only the tournament's MVP, he also was inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Seventeen team gathered for the 23rd annual tournament which is dedicated to the life and memory of former versatile athlete and Wayne police officer, Leonard J. Anderson. Patrolmen Anderson was gunned down while he was investigating a domestic violence case in May of 1974.

This year's tournament entries included: ABT of Northville, managed by Mark McDonald; Calvert's, of Canton Township, managed by Manfred Budnarski; Dependable Transportation, of Westland, managed by Lou Musulin; Hilliard Lyons/Marsh/Benny's of Garden City, managed by Gary Garner; Journeyman/Varsity/Quest/Easton of Westland, managed by Larry Quaruccio; Justin Reigns, of New Boston, managed by David Hickey; and Larson Maintenance, of Taylor, managed by Chuck Larson.

Also in the field were: Les Stanford/Little Bills of Westland, managed by Jerod Hura; Maroadi Transfer/Eaton, of Jeanette, Pa., managed by Joe Baney; Merchant Systems, of Novi, managed by Paul Williams; Metro Glass, of Westland, managed by Eric Babler; Nagle Softball Club, of Pickney, managed by Jim Clark; Plumbers & Pipefitters of Lansing, managed by John Dobernick; Temple/Benitos, of Wayne, managed by Don Farmer; Timberwolf, of Redford, managed by Brett Zaleski; Wayne Stamping/Wayne Brewery, of Wayne, managed by Jeff Carter; and Zada Enterprises of Dearborn Heights, managed by Tony Kasab.

counted for three big hits and played an excellent game on defense at third.

Katy Rothwell of the White Sox also came through for the winners at the plate.

Also, in their clash with the Devil Rays for the CC-

JBSA Tournament Title, the White Sox wiped out the Devil Rays 14-8. Claire Ostrowski came through for the Sox with a triple, and a two-run single. The White Sox also erased a serious Devil Ray's scoring threat in the fourth when Lindsey Bennett managed to get the final two outs thanks to a double play.

The Devil Rays' Melissa Leach stood out at the plate. She had a perfect 3-for-3 and also two RBIs. Chelsea Quinlan also played an excellent game.

In the second-round of tournament competition, the Devil Rays met and defeated the Phillies 16-14 as the Rays scored in every inning. Natalie Demeyere, Melissa Leach and Danielle Pizzo each had clutch hits for the winners whose victory qualified them for the tournament championships game.

end or at wingback. He's 6-1, 195.

Brothers says that it is very important that the team gets off to a good start.

"We have a tough schedule. There are some excellent teams in this league," Brothers stressed.

Saturday's opener against the Fremont Stallions will begin at 3:30 p.m.

The Twisters' first home game is scheduled for 1 p.m. on July 31 against the Motor City Cougars, a team out of Detroit. The Twisters will again be utilizing the old Cherry Hill High School field as their home field.

The field is located on Avondale Road, at the corner of Harrison, between Middlebelt and Inkster Road.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for students, while children, ages 10 and under, accompanied by an adult will be admitted from of charge.

The Wayne County Twisters are a non-profit organization which is organized and chartered to foster and support local, national and international amateur sports competition.

Brothers added the "Twisters - players and staff - are true volunteers and ambassadors, who are willingly donating their time, energy and talents to the youth of western Wayne County and to local communities.

"Revenues in excess of operating expenses are donated to the Academy of Detroit and the Wayne/Westland YMCA for their selected local youth programs. In order to succeed, we definitely will need the support of our general public," Brothers said.

Mayor Edward Bivens Jr. (seated, second from left) represented the city of Inkster at the National Conference of Black Mayors staged recently in New Orleans. He joined colleagues from across the nation to discuss the pertinent issues related to the executive office and also how to generate more legislative support for economically hard-pressed cities.

Bivens attends national conference

The tragedy at Columbine High School in Denver turned into the major topic of discussion by mayors who attended the National Conference of Black Mayors staged in Colorado.

Mayor Edward Bivens, Jr., who represented the city of Inkster, said that "we were all shocked and stunned at what had happened. First, we didn't believe it, but when the news reports continued to dominate the TV screens, reality set in. "We stood there numb and shocked," Bivens said. "I don't think there is a place in our country that is immune to violence."

Hosted by NCBM's newly-elected president, Mayor Jesse M. Norwood of Prichard, Alabama, the reception was attended by mayors, primarily, representing cities with populations in excess of 30,000. In introductory remarks, Mayor Norwood praised Mayor Wellington E. Webb, of Denver, Colorado for the way he handled the Columbine High School tragedy, which occurred on the first day of the NCBM's 25th Anniversary Convention in Denver.

In remarks to guests, assembled at the reception, Mayor Webb pledged to work with the USCM and NCBM to position mayors at the helm of public policy, legislative initiatives and programs to make substantive changes in the new millennium.

Mayor Norwood expressed interest in "forming an alliance with the USCM to work on projects of mutual benefits to mayors, representing both urban and rural municipalities."

Bivens said he hoped to see more cooperation from the executive and legislative branches of government, especially in the area of providing funds for job training programs.

"We have to work together in order to find the solutions that have plagued this nation," said Bivens. "There is so much to do. And we must work together to get it done."

Recognition program NAACP to honor top students

THE PROOF:

BEST TOTAL QUALITY FROM STRATEGIC VISION.

Facts are facts. And fact is, the Strategic Vision 1999 Total Quality Award for Best Full-Size Pickup Ownership Experience belongs to The Truck, the new Chevy Silverado. Strategic Vision quality scores are based on the responses of more than 33,000 new-vehicle owners after 90 days of ownership who rate all parts of the vehicle ownership experience, including power, craftsmanship, innovation, reliability, style, ride, handling, safety, comfort and thoughtful design.

BIGGEST EXTENDED CAB OF ANY HALF-TON.

Here's another fact: The Truck has the biggest extended cab of any half-ton pickup. Bigger than Ford F-150. Bigger than Dodge Ram. Bigger than any import. Period. The Truck is big on comfort, too. Consider: more rear-seat legroom than any half-ton pickup, adjustable outboard headrests and an 18-degree rear seatback angle that makes backseat drivers happy on long trips.

MOST POWERFUL V8 OF ANY 4x4.

When it comes to power, The Truck offers you a choice of not one, but two new V8 engines that are more powerful than Ford F-150 or Dodge Ram or any import. # WCC enrollment soars

Dorothy Ella Shupick has been drawing since she was young. So when she got a mailer announcing summer courses at Wayne County Community District, the 88-year old decided to perfect her artistic skills.

"I like to stay active," said Shupick as she sketched a sailing ship pictured in a magazine. "Plus, I took a fancy to my teacher," Shupick said. "He coaxes me, and he's so patient. When I took this course, I said, I've found it," said Shupick, who plans to return to the WCCD Downriver Campus this fall for more art classes.

Shupick is one of dozens of senior citizens who comprise the more than 7,400 students responsible for a record breaking 1999 summer enrollment at WCCD.

Dr. Jacqueline Hodges, WCCD dean for enrollment management and student services, said the five campus district has experienced a 26 percent increase in enrollment over summer 1998, the highest since 1984.

"We've done a lot of things right."
- Dr. Curtis L. Ivery

WCCD's enrollment this summer is 7,485. That compares to 5,96 in 1998 and 7,274 in 1994.

"In this business, this is considered a blockbuster," Hodges said. "Anything over five percent is a yeoman's job."

Dr. Curtis L. Ivery, WCCD chancellor is encouraged about his summer upswing and said this could be the beginning of a positive enrollment trend at the College in spite of early projections that fall 1999 enrollment would be down from last year.

"With the result of what we see here, we would be remiss if we didn't talk about (implementing for fall) some of the changes that probably helped to increase our summer enrollment," Ivery said.

"We've done a lot of things right," he continued. "Our staff is working well. We're about quality. People say, Wayne County Community College is the best kept secret. This increase in enrollment is just one of the many good things we're doing."

Hodges credits the "blockbuster" increases to shorter summer semesters and a more diverse course offering. Two of the three summer terms were accelerated each seven weeks instead of the normally brief nine weeks.

"Possibly this is the answer for adult students," Hodges added. "They met only one or two days per week. We offered extensive community service courses, contracted training and casino training."
